AGENDA SUMMARY

Agenda – A tentative agenda for the board meeting on Tuesday is enclosed with this agenda summary for your review.

ANY ITEMS REQUIRING BOARD ACTION APPEAR IN RED.

Consent Agenda — Board minutes — The minutes from the October board meeting and executive committee meeting are in the board packet as Exhibit A.

Question Presented: Whether to accept and approve the October board minutes as presented.

Financials — Membership invoices for both banks and strategic members were sent Nov. 1 for the 2025 membership year. Several payments have already been received. One bank and one strategic member have communicated that they will not be renewing their membership.

Following is a summarized view of the consolidated and association-only income statements. Included at the end are several graphs demonstrating various trends. The significant spike in total revenue and net income during the 21-22 fiscal year is a result of receiving PPP funds during that fiscal year.

Consolidated Performance

	Actual	Plan	Prior Year
Income	$2,127,059	$2,073,417	$1,867,209
Expense	1,742,820	1,919,567	1,637,485
Net Profit (Loss)	$ 384,239	$ 153,850	$ 229,724

The consolidated entities have a Net Income of $384,239 which is significantly better than Plan and Prior Year. On a consolidated basis, Actual Income is greater than Plan by $53,642/3% and Prior Year by $259,850/14%. Consolidated Expense is less than Plan ($176,747/9%) and more than Prior Year ($105,335/6%).

Dues revenues are comparable to Plan and slightly more than Prior Year. Revenue from Convention, Seminars, Schools & Subscriptions is slightly less than Plan and better than Prior Year. Products and Services revenue and Insurance revenue continue to trail both Plan and Prior Year. Advertising & Sponsorship revenue exceeds both Plan and Prior year.

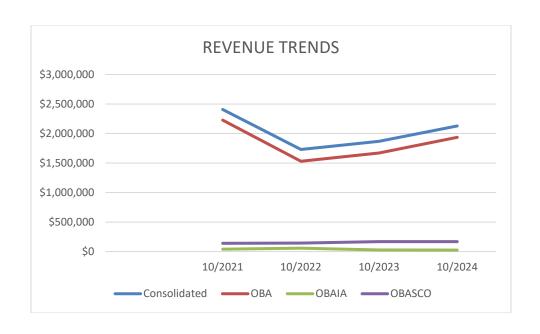

All expenses, by program, are less or comparable to Plan. This should serve as confirmation that variances are based on planned changes. Compared to Prior Year, most program expenses are lower with a few exceptions. Conventions, Seminars & Schools and Endorsements are more than Prior Year but reasonable in comparison to Plan.

Association Only

		Actual	Plan	Prior Year
Income		$ 1,934,598	$ 1,856,085	$ 1,670,457
Expense		1,498,464	1,644,823	1,411,698
Net Income	(Loss)	$ 436,135	$ 211,262	$ 258,759

At the Association level, Actual Income exceeds Prior Year and Plan. Association Actual Expense is less than Plan and more than Prior Year. The Association has a Net Income of $436,135 compared to Plan Net Income of $211,262 and Prior Year Net Income of $258,759.

The financial statements are included in your board packet as Exhibit B.

Question Presented: Whether to accept and approve the financial statements as presented.

GRC Report and PAC report —

We will have a full report of the OBA Annual Washington Visit at the Board meeting as well as an update on what the polls look like at the time of the meeting. Anything regarding the elections in the report would be outdated by the time we meet on Wednesday.

Federal Issues

U.S. Senate

Republicans – 53 Democrats – 45 Independents – 2

Republicans will have a majority control in the Senate. During the election the Republicans were able to flip four seats.

- Montana
- West Virginia

^{}Lunch sponsors: Mabrey Bank, The Bankers Bank, BancCard of America, BancFirst.

^{*1} bank had a large purchase

- Pennsylvania
- Ohio

Senator John Thune (R-SD) was selected to be the new Majority Leader in the U.S. Senate. Leader Thune is a strong supporter of community banks and should be an asset in the Senate.

Oklahoma Senator James Lankford won an uncontested bid to become the vice chair of the Senate GOP Policy Committee. Senator Lankford becomes the first Oklahoma Republican to become a member of the Senate GOP leadership team in more than 20 years, since for Senator Don Nickles.

U.S. House (As of November 24, 2024)

Treasury Secretary

Scott Bessent

Bessent, founded and runs the hedge fund Key Square Group. Bessent is a very strong supporter of Trump's tax cuts and cutting the corporate income tax. The reason that I single out this nominee is because this individual will play a key role when it comes to nominating individuals for regulatory agencies.

FDIC

Chairman Gruenberg announced that he will resign on January 19. As of today, below is the current makeup of the FDIC Board:

- (D) Chair Marty Gruenberg
- (R) VC Travis Hill
- (R) Director Jonathan McKernan
- (D) Rohit Chopra
- (D) Michael HSU

Acting Comptroller Hsu will resign on January 19th or be removed by the President on January 20th. The Comptroller of the Currency can be removed by the President with reasons communicated to the U.S. Senate.

CFPB

Director Chopra will resign on January 19th or be removed by the President on January 20th. The Supreme Court decided the removal of limitations for the Director of the CFPB are unconstitutional and they can be removed at the will of the President.

Federal Reserve

Chairman Jerome Powell's term doesn't end until 2026. There aren't any statutes in place that include details about whether a president can remove a fed chair. No president has ever attempted to remove a Fed Chair from their role before, though, so the authority to do so has not been legally tested.

On January 20, 2025 every single agency will receive an official letter from the White House COS, on behalf of the President that a regulatory freeze has been put in place. Every single president does this, it's not unique to any particular party. This gives the incoming administration an opportunity to examine every single rule. The rules of the letter are:

- If a rule is pending, leave it as it is.
- If a rule has been finalized, but not yet published in the federal register, pull it back.
- If a rule has been published in the federal register and hasn't become effective yet, push out the effective date.

The following Rules are subject to the "Regulatory Freeze."

- Basel 3 Endgame July 1, 2025
- Overdraft October 1, 2025
- 1033 April 1, 2026
- Brokered Deposits ?
- Mortgage Servicing ?
- Section 1071 July 18, 2026

There are some rules that are considered "Final Rules" and wouldn't fall under the "regulatory freeze."

- CRA
- Credit Card Late Fees
- Bank Merger Guidelines

The Congressional Review Act is a seldom used tool that could and most likely be used to address any rules that wouldn't fall under the "Regulatory Freeze." To overturn a rule, both chambers of Congress must pass the CRA joint resolution of disapproval under fast-track procedures, and the President must sign it. If the president vetoes the resolution, Congress can override the veto. If the resolution passes without a veto, the rule is revoked. The agency is also prohibited from reissuing the same rule in "substantially the same form", unless Congress authorizes a similar rule through new legislation.

FDIC Insurance Reform

To be discussed during the meeting.

Things are going to move very fast at the federal level, we have about a two-year window to accomplish a whole lot of work. President Trump's tax proposal is rumored to be almost done and will most likely be dropped by the end of January. This issues will suck all the oxygen out of Washington for several weeks. It's going to be a fun time and we will be flying down the road at a 120 mph with no brakes.

State Issues

The members of the Oklahoma legislature have officially been sworn into office, the Senate was sworn in on November 13th and the House on November 20th. Shortly after the Senate was sworn in, it held a vote for President Pro Tempore of the Senate. This vote is held within the majority Caucus and you will never know how each member voted. After the dust had settle Sen. Lonnie Paxton emerged victorious, rumors are that he defeated Sen. Bullard by one vote. On November 19th, the House Republican caucus elected Rep. Kyle Hilbert as the next Speaker of the Oklahoma House of Representatives.

There are several new members of the both the House and the Senate, below is the party breakdown for both the House and the Senate.

State Senate

39 - Republicans

8 - Democrats

1 – Vacancy (Special election on March 4th, 2025)

New Senate Members

11 - Republicans

3 - Democrats

State House

81 – Republicans

20 - Democrats

New House Members

14 - Republicans

3 - Democrats

The OBA is potentially going to introduce three pieces of legislation this year. Last year the OBA introduced a state level ACRE bill that would hopefully spur lending in the rural areas of Oklahoma. We were successful in the House and ran into some hurdles in the Senate. We are waiting on a response from those legislative members that were involved last year to give it the green light for this year. The second bill that we are considering has to do with some minor changes for the handful of Savings & Loans in the state. The third bill that we will absolutely be running deals with Crypto ATM, the intent of the legislation will add some consumer protections and hopefully mitigate some of the scams that are currently happening in Oklahoma.

Pac Report —

PAC fundraising totals for the year are up from the same point last year. At the end of October, the State PAC has raised, $55,935 while the FED PAC has raised $34,870 for a total of $90,805. This total is $7,858 more than where we were at this point last year. We usually have one or two special board meetings between November and December. Those meetings will go a long way to help us get prepared for our pre-session mass check writing event.

We have started receiving fundraiser invites and they won't stop until late January. Every State Senator and State Representative will be asking for money. They are all trying to retire debt from the 2024 election or starting to build their war chest for their next election.

It's very important that we have as many bankers as possible support the PAC. We recently sent a personalized letter to all Presidents and CEO's that haven't contributed, we are hoping that letter will generate some yearend contributions.

There are several ways that you can contribute, you can do a one-time personal check, a monthly EFT or have your bank host a Special Board Meeting. All of these options are easy and greatly appreciated. We are thankful for all the support that we have received from the bankers in 2022. Any chance you have to talk to other bankers about the PAC will be greatly appreciated as we continuously work to educate the membership on the important role the PAC plays in our success. Should you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact Adrian or Megan.

Michael Oonk	Jerold Phillips

OBA Staff Present:

Adrian Beverage	Lea Ann Jackson	Megan McGuire	Sharon Lewis
Jeremy Cowen	Janis Reeser (call-in)	Judy Hanna	Joan Anderson

Consent Agenda

- Approval of agenda and previous meeting minutes
- Financial Statements

A motion to approve the Consent Agenda was made by Steve Hart and seconded by Adam Anderson. The motion was approved unanimously with no abstentions.

FINANCIALS

- Lea Ann let the group know that nothing of note was happening, good or bad!
- She also let everyone know that dues invoices were going out November 1. If haven't received payment by December 5 the dues will be run through ACH.

Group Question

Alicia asked the group the following question: What if it had been your bank? What do you think would have happened? (This is in regards to the bank failure in Lindsey) Below are the comments from the group:

- Adam Anderson feel like this is a test from the FDIC will they get any push back?
- Priscilla Cude Should we make other state associations aware of what is happening?
- Loren Parham and Julie Stovall both feel like their banks would have been blown off
- Troy Appling Rates banks for a living, but when dealing with fraud and collusion those things can't be predicted. Feels like this is an opportunity to push for legislation
- Sharon Lewis asked the question why was this bank treated differently than the one in Kansas? Dudley Gilbert addressed this issue in the GRC meeting and said he felt like it was because the Kansas bank was defrauded from the outside whereas this bank was defrauded from the inside
- In relation to why only the insured deposits were sold, Evans McBride told the group he felt like FDIC is taking this opportunity to take a step back
- Troy informed the group that he spoke with Jan Miller who said he felt like the last time depositors' weren't made whole was the Penn Square Bank failure
- Steve Hart this needs to be tackled at the Federal level and feels like the FDIC has failed us here in Oklahoma

Staff Reports

Education and Training

- See Board Packet for full report
- Janis did emphasize that she needs the Boards' input for speakers at Convention and Senior Management. Speaker Proposals were left for each member and they were asked to get these filled out as soon as possible and returned to her asap

OBASCO

- Modifications have been made to the holiday signs to include Indigenous Peoples Day
- See Board Packet for report

PAC

- Slightly ahead of where we were this time last year
- Will do a big check run in January and will hand deliver most of those checks

GRC

• See Board Packet for report – everything was gone over during the GRC Meeting

Member Relations

- November 6th will be the first session of Emerging Leaders Academy
- Hall of Fame is December 5th
- Thanks to those who went on the Washington Visit save the date for next year's visit which will be September 21-23, 2025
- Nikita Thompson will be receiving an award next week at ABA, this is a big deal so if you know her please congratulate her
- See Board Packet for remainder of report

External/Internal Communications

• See Board Packet for report

Fraud

- Regarding the bank failure in Lindsay, Sharon stated that it is always a lack of internal controls and that this is a good opportunity for our bankers to revisit that fact
- See Board Packet for report

Board Calling Reports

Adrian stated that this is getting started and things seem to be going well so far

OTHER BUSINESS

- Megan thanked the golfers that played in the tournament on Monday and encouraged everyone to send Halloween pics to her
- Judy Hanna let the group know that there is deposit coverage insurance available and to get in touch with her if that is something they are interested in

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, a motion was made by Steve Bagwell and seconded by Alicia Wade to adjourn the meeting. Adjournment was at 1:56 p.m.

Oklahoma Bankers Association

Meeting of the Executive Committee

Wednesday, October 23, 2024

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Oklahoma Bankers was held at the OBA on Wednesday, October 23, 2024. OBA Chair Alicia Wade called the meeting to order at 10:32am. Others present included Vice-Chair Steve Bagwell and First Vice-Chair Priscilla Cude, Lea Ann Jackson and Adrian Beverage. Chair Wade asked for an approval of the agenda. Cude made the motion to approve and Bagwell made the second. The agenda was approved unanimously with no abstentions.

Jackson presented the financials through 9/30/24. Beverage reported on the OBA's Strategic Plan, emails have gone out to board members and we've started to see a good response.

Under other business the topic of FNB Lindsay was discussed. There was lots of talk about the rumors on how and why everything happened. We started to talk more about the issue dealing with the uninsured deposits. The discussion was brief as we were 2 minutes away from the start of the GRC meeting and we knew this topic was going to be discussed throughout GRC and the board meeting later than morning.

There being no further business to come before the Executive Committee, the meeting was duly adjourned at 10:58am.

Respectfully Submitted Recording Secretary

Amid bank failure fallout, City of Lindsay audit reveals 'gross mismanagement'

By Bennett Brinkman - Friday, November 15, 2024

Already facing turmoil with the federal takeover of a failed local bank and the seemingly related suicide of a prominent community leader, the City of Lindsay was further rocked Wednesday with the release of a new audit that found "significant mismanagement" of municipal finances from July 1, 2019, to June 30, 2022.

Oklahoma State Auditor and Inspector Cindy Byrd conducted the forensic audit at the request of District Attorney Greg Mashburn, whose jurisdiction covers Cleveland, Garvin and McClain counties. State officials wrote in their report that the Garvin County city about 50 miles south of Oklahoma City "experienced substantial financial difficulties" during the audit period that were "primarily caused by the city council's failure to provide adequate oversight along with poor financial decisions made by city management."

"The warning signs were there but no one was looking," Byrd said in a press release accompanying the audit report. "Lindsay's elected leaders have a legal obligation to oversee the city's finances. Instead, the city's financial mismanagement was exacerbated by ineffectual leadership that failed to maintain records and oversee city functions. As a result, Lindsay taxpayers have been shortchanged by hundreds of thousands of dollars."

Auditors detailed numerous findings in their 25-page report, such as under-billing commercial customers for utilities, holding tax revenue earmarked for the Lindsay Public Works Authority in incorrect bank accounts, and failing to undergo audits. Additionally, Byrd's office said town officials spent tens of thousands of dollars with little oversight or approval from the Lindsay City Council.

"While we found countless examples of deficient oversight, mismanagement and poor decision-making, we classified less than $2,000 of expenditures as fraudulent," Byrd said in the press release. "On a very good note, the City of Lindsay is working to resolve the issues we discovered and appears to have turned the corner financially. The city has caught up on its audits and is now fully eligible to apply for grant money."

New Lindsay City Manager Sally Jantz — who took the position in July 2023, a year after a $1 million municipal budget deficit was identified — echoed Byrd's assessment.

2 of 7

"We currently have fixed as many of the problems that that we have been able to identify to this point — or are in the process of fixing," Jantz told NonDoc. "As we find the things, we correct them. (We are) trying to do things the right way."

Lindsay audit released weeks after bank failure

The audit comes as the 2,800-person community is still reeling from the Oct. 18 forced closure of First National Bank of Lindsay by the U.S. Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. Known as the FDIC, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. was named as receiver, and all of the bank's assets were transferred to the Duncan-based First Bank & Trust Co.

According to an FDIC press release, the bank's failure stemmed from "alleged fraud," and the Deposit Insurance Fund may have to cover about $43 million. About $7.1 million of the bank's deposits exceeded FDIC insurance limits.

"Based on the estimated recoveries of the failed bank assets, the FDIC will make 50 percent of uninsured funds available to those depositors," the release stated. "This amount could increase as the FDIC sells the assets of the failed bank."

First National Bank of Lindsay had been in operation for more than 100 years prior to its failure, although its website's About Page had simply stated, "More information coming soon" for several years. Three weeks before the bank's closure, vice president Clint Simonton died by suicide. A husband and father, Simonton had been an active community leader and a former Lindsay school board member. His lengthy obituary said he "was not without his faults, but was so quick to apologize, and to forgive."

"Clint was a proud American and patriot. He was a conservative and had a great passion for talking politics," the obituary states. "He loved reading about American History, the discovery, and the wars. He loved discussing it and dreamed of traveling the route of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. He loved this country and all the freedoms it represents, especially the right to bears arms, and he did just that, everywhere he went. He probably broke a few laws but he was always ready to defend the people he loved. That's just who he was."

The Lindsay bank's failure — the second in America this year — has drawn national attention, with one commentator remarking on the FDIC's decision to reimburse only 50 percent of uninsured deposits. In 2023, when Silicon Valley Bank and Signature Bank both failed amid a downturn in the tech industry, the FDIC made all depositors 100 percent whole, regardless of whether accounts had more than $250,000 in them.

3 of 7

"You've heard of too big to fail," the commentator said. "Well, this is too small to care. That's the reality of the FDIC."

Oklahoma Rep. Cynthia Roe (R-Lindsay) shared a similar thought.

"I would just hope that the small rural Oklahoma banks can get the same fair treatment to their depositors that the big banks get," she said.

Amid wide speculation about the reported "fraud" that caused the bank failure, former majority shareholder Jack Justice filed a lawsuit Oct. 25 against former president and CEO Danny Seibel and his wife, Debra Seibel. A community leader himself, Justice owns Reavis Pharmacy in Pauls Valley.

Reached Thursday, Justice said he did not want to comment on the case and directed inquiries to his daughter, Julie Justice, who is an attorney. She confirmed that her father is no longer involved with the bank.

"Our family's been through a lot with all of this, and we're just trying to move on with our lives," Julie Justice said.

In his petition, which the Seibels have yet to answer, Jack Justice accused the two defendants of fraud and civil conspiracy. Justice said Danny Seibel routinely lied to him and other bank directors and encouraged other bank employees to do the same. Justice also alleged that Seibel took cash and property from the bank and presented him with false bank records.

"As a result of the fraud and misrepresentations by Danny and Debra, Justice has suffered actual and consequential losses as a direct result of the misrepresentations, assurances and nondisclosures of Danny and Debra in an amount in excess of $10 million," the petition states.

Justice also alleged that Danny Seibel "routinely would not show up for work and would spend significant amounts of time at various casinos and bars with his spouse, in the company of convicted felons; activities that were concealed by Danny and others from Justice and the other directors and shareholders of the bank."

A native of Hulbert whose career at First National Bank of Lindsay began with a 1992 internship, Seibel did not return a phone call seeking comment prior to the publication of this article. On his Twitter and Facebook pages, Seibel has frequently posted pro-Trump and anti-Democrat rhetoric, although he has said little since mid-August.

"Kamala wants to make you believe corporations are price gouging on your food costs," Seibel wrote Aug. 15. "Well let's see, the farmer that plows and prepares the land is paying much more for diesel to operate their tractor, much more for seed, much more for fertilizer, much more to feed their livestock, much more for harvesting, then the increased cost of transport of the crop or livestock, higher cost for processing, higher cost to package and shipping to the stores, thus higher cost for all of us. But it isn't their liberal policies right????? They say it is the corporation. Give me a damn break. Vote Trump and drill baby drill. Energy cost reduction is the key to lowering inflation. When we become energy independent all our costs are reduced but companies still make money. It's called economies of scale. Look it up Libs. Oh, and not giving our money to other countries for war would help as well."

4 of 7 11/25/2024, 10:27 AM

'I just hate it for the community'

Both the bank failure and the state audit have drawn rumors and critical posts on a Facebook page dedicated to Lindsay.

"This town is full of crooks," one man commented on an Oct. 21 post about how the city had moved money out of the bank shortly before its closure.

Jantz, the city manager, had explained the situation hours earlier at the Lindsay City Council meeting.

"Last week, we had an incident where we had had some of our collateral had been sold, and I went back to the bank and said, 'You know, we're not covered,'" Jantz said. "They said, 'Yeah, you are.' I said, 'No, we're not covered. I have to have monies covered.' And they called me back then later in the week and said, 'We're not going to be able to cover it.'"

The comments section of the Facebook post drew a range of reactions, with some who voiced concerns being told they were welcome to leave town. That attitude prompted sharp rebukes.

"[Not] everyone has the funds to just pick up and move from a corrupt town," one woman wrote.
"Only problem now is Lindsay can't cover it up with the feds involved. Some of us moved here not knowing how bad it was. And this is just the beginning of what goes down, watch."

Roe eventually chimed in herself to defend the city's new leaders, which include her husband, Councilman Vern Roe. He was elected in 2022. She was elected to the House in 2018.

"A new city council immediately got rid of the problem that caused the city's financial woes and we have a city manager now that is actually doing a fantastic job and has remedied a lot of the issues," Cynthia Roe wrote. "When you have a city manager that was not reconciling bank statements, and in fact not even opening them, it's hard to know what your finances are. The city is getting things turned around but when you are in debt like the city was, it doesn't turn around over night."

A nurse practitioner working extra shifts in Pauls Valley on Thursday, Roe cautioned people to wait for the truth to come out before believing everything written by "keyboard warriors on Facebook."

"I just hate it for the community, and then you get all the people in the community that are badmouthing everybody. There's just a lot of speculation and rumors and people trying to guess what really happened," Roe said. "I think it's going to be a very long time before we have a lot of answers over the bank."

Roe called Simonton's death "unfortunate" and said he "was one of the nicest guys you would ever meet." She also praised Jack Justice.

"Jack is one of the most community-oriented people you've ever met," she said. "He does so much."

She also called Jantz, Lindsay's new city manager, a "rock star" who is "making some very positive changes."

Among the issues identified in the audit were multiple metering problems for the city's electric utility, which caused $1.5 million of under-billing on commercial customers. The city expects to recover about $676,000 of that amount.

In terms of the bank failure, Jantz said the city is dealing with issues similar to those faced by citizens.

"Anytime something like that happens in a community, it's tough," Jantz said. "We had city accounts in that bank, so, you know, obviously it did affect us. But we are getting our stuff taken care of, and I'm sure that's what a lot of people are having to deal with."
